

Who's Who Legal: The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers 2008

Stein Ray & Harris LLP was recommended as “one of the best construction firms in the whole country, not just the state”. All three name partners received sufficient nominations to be included. Steven Stein is “a great lawyers with an unbelievable client following”. Stein is a former board member of the American College of Construction Lawyers. He has been involved in the successful resolution for his client in the arbitration of a claim arising from the construction of a diesel power plant in Guatemala, a case that involved approximately US$100 million, and of a San Antonio-based arbitration proceeding regarding a power plant in Arizona. On the non-contentious side, he also advised on the negotiation of a contract for an LNG Facility in Peru with a contract value of US$1.7 billion. Stein's Colleague Stephen Ray is “the lawyer I would want on my side for any type of construction dispute” according to one corporate counsel we spoke to. He has counseled and represented contractors and design professionals across the US in construction defect, construction delay and mechanics lien claims. Robert Harris was involved in the firm's successful representation of a commercial financing broker in a dispute with a local real estate developer in connection with the development of the Bank One Center in downtown Chicago.
